THE ICGLR SECRETARIAT CONGRATULATES PRESIDENT FAUSTIN-ARCHANGE TOUADÉRA ON HIS REELECTION

Bujumbura – 23 January 2026. The International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (ICGLR) warmly congratulates His Excellency Faustin-Archange Touadéra, President of the Central African Republic, on his successful reelection in the 28 December 2025 presidential election, as proclaimed by the Constitutional Council.

President Touadéra's renewed mandate reflects the confidence placed in his leadership by the people of the Central African Republic. In this important moment, the ICGLR Secretariat encourages all stakeholders to continue engaging constructively in national reconciliation, peacebuilding, and inclusive development. Strengthening democratic governance and promoting stability remain central to advancing the aspirations of the nation's citizens.

The ICGLR remains committed to supporting the Government and people of the Central African Republic in their ongoing efforts to consolidate peace, enhance socio-economic progress, and deepen regional cooperation in line with the principles of the ICGLR Pact and relevant African Union frameworks.
